The main purpose of this event was to showcase new Philippine tourism products in the market in time for the coming summer holiday. Fifteen (15) Philippine seller delegates joined the sales mission consisting of 6 tour operators and 7 hotel and resort representatives and airlines. In pre-arranged B2B sessions that were conducted in the 3 cities, the sellers were able to present individually to all invited Taiwanese travel agents in cities as shown in the stamped passport provided by DOT-Taiwan. Based on a post-event survey gathered from 12 respondents or 88 percent of the total number of Philippine sellers, the sellers generally met their objectives in participating in the sales mission. They were satisfied with the turn-out where almost 80% think that the actual number and quality of buyers from both markets surpassed their expectations. However, there were a few participants who were disappointed on the little time given for each round during the private sector presentations.	N/A	Completed
