Corporate Governance Health Check

ICD's CG Health Check is a quantitative tool to measure the level of observance of a code and/or a standard of corporate governance. It is used to assess a company's governance practices, show progress over time, and compare different companies within the sector or across the country. The CG Health Check for GOCCs generates important information on the quality of governance practices of the company vis-à-vis standards recommended in the CG Scorecard for GOCCs developed by the GCG with ICD. The findings will help the company develop a corporate governance improvement plan that will result to better operational performance, lower risk and promote competence, competitiveness, and innovation – qualities that improve company's chances for success in today's rapidly evolving corporate world.

Professional Directors Program

Directors who want to join ICD's learned society of Fellows are invited to join the Professional Directors Program -- a 5-day course designed to help professionalize the practice of corporate directorship and promote good governance practices in the boardroom. Filled with key lessons on the application of corporate governance principles and real-life case studies facilitated by internationally-recognized faculty, this ICD flagship program provides unique tools to help you add value to a corporation. Be a professional director and join ICD!

Should you have further queries about ICD's programs, please contact Ms. Pink Aparicio at (+02) 807.1393 or email to paparicio@icdceg.org. We would also be happy to schedule a meeting with you to share more details about our corporate governance advocacy.
